Prologue

The end of the 18th century. The pristine order of monarchies throughout the world shakes from the sweeping shockwaves of change. Successive natural disasters, incurable diseases of unknown origin, brutal wars, and senseless massacres wrack this era of turmoil. An unshakable air of despair and futility insinuates itself into the hearts of the citizens of the world, translating its force into unending meaningless conflict and inescapable ennui. Of course, the above has very little to do with our story. We are concerned with the fates of 12 heroes who, each concerned with their own destinies, are treading the long and cruel path to self-realization. Little do these protagonists know that their respective journeys will inevitably bring them into the clutches of the dreaded Yoshiro Tokisada Amakusa. Believed to have been slain in the Tokugawa Era, he has risen from the netherworlds to effect his final ends—destruction of the world and the discovery of a truly good tasting coffee.

DASHES

You can dash by rapidly pressing the Directional Pad twice in the direction you are facing.

THE METHODS OF MAYHEM

Each character has his or her own arsenal of special moves and attacks. Many of these attacks require a weapon, so keep a grip on your sword at all times! (For complete list of the METHODS OF MAYHEM, see page 17).

The Way Of The Sword

THE SWORD IS THE LIFE OF THE SAMURAI!

To survive your battles, you must master the way of the blade. Speed is what counts in improving your attacks and gaining an edge over your opponents.

LOCKING SWORDS

When your character locks swords with another, press the Light Punch button repeatedly.

LOSING YOUR WEAPON

After you recover from the shame of being disarmed, get up and fight your way back to the sword. To pick it up, Press the Light Punch button.

THE “NO PAIN, NO PAIN” SPRINT

Stop your opponents sword attack by rushing into your opponent's chest. A great way to foil your adversaries and a great topic for stories at boring parties.

Note: Your sword is not invincible. If you hit too hard your sword can shatter like a beer bottle. Your sword is fixed, however, at the end of the round.

Dueling

Each match consists of two duels. The winner of these duels advances to the next opponent.

DETERMINING THE WINNER.

Here's the Scoop:

- Lose all your power and you lose.
- If the battle is not decided within the given time limit, the competitor with the most life remaining wins.
- If both opponents have power and equal amounts of life, the match will be called a tie.
- A fourth round will be allowed in the case of a tie after the third round.

Bonus Stage

Bonus Stages appear periodically throughout the game. In the Bonus Stages, you must slash and hack at the straw dummies that appear for extra points.

Round Bonuses

The remaining time, life and hitting percentage your character has at the conclusion of each round will determine the amount of bonus points you will receive.

- LIFE: The more lives remaining, the more bonus points
- TIME: Bonus points are determined by the remaining time multiplied by 100.
- HITTING PERCENTAGE: Bonus points are determined by the following formula: Number of attacks landed as a percentage of number of attacks landed, multiplied by 200.

You can also gain bonus points from the money that occasionally comes flying out of the pockets of your opponents.

2-Player Competition

To start 2-Player Competitive Play, simply press the start button on the Player 2 controller. A second player may also enter the challenge during regular computer play in the same manner.

Resurrection/ Continuing Play

After defeat, the continue game count begins. Push the Start Button before the count reaches zero to continue play up to a maximum of three times. In two-player competitions, if the losing player elects not to continue play, the action reverts to computer play for the remaining player. (For 2-Player action, be sure to have a Sega Controller plugged into Control Port 2 at the front of the console.)

Items

Be alert for parcels of coins and food while you fight. Coins offer bonus points and food offers life meter points.

Rage

As your character receives blows, his or her rage increases. At full rage, the character turns red and goes into a nearly uncontrollable rage. Your attacks and METHODS OF MAYHEM will be at their deadliest during this time. But remember, the damage you can receive at this time is more deadly as well!

Characters and Their Methods of Mayhem
